

CHOOSING A "JUST RIGHT" BOOK

A "Just Right" Book is when:

1. You know most of the words.
2. You read at a medium speed.
3. The book makes you feel "EXCELLENT" when you read it.
4. There is some challenge in reading it.
5. You can retell the story.

A "TOO HARD" Book is when:

1. You know only some of the words.
2. You read at a slow speed.
3. The book makes you sleepy, angry or even frustrated when reading it.
4. There is too much challenge in the book.
5. You have no idea what is going on in the story.

A "TOO EASY" Book is when:

1. You know all of the words.
2. You read at a fast speed.
3. The story makes you bored.
4. There is no challenge in the book.
5. You have the story memorized.
